

My Teacher

My teacher is Miss Lam. She is an English teacher. Her eyes are big and black. Her hair is long and straight. She likes playing badminton.

Miss Lam always gets up early in the morning. First, she gets dressed and has breakfast. She sometimes has pancakes with maple syrup and a cup of coffee but she never has waffles for breakfast. Then, she reads the newspaper before she goes to work. She goes to work by MTR.

In the afternoon, after she finishes the lessons with the students, she has lunch with Miss Chan at the school cafeteria.

In the evening, she goes back home and has dinner. Finally, she goes to bed at eleven o'clock.

Miss Lam is very hard working. What I learn from her is her passion for the English language. I will practice my English skills every day.
