

My Collection

I've got a small bookshelf for my collection. Do you like kids' or classic fiction? My favourite one is Isadora Moon. This collection tells stories about a girl named Isadora Moon. She is half vampire and half fairy — totally unique.

The books are obviously pink, black, and white. Isadora Moon is on the cover of each book. I keep them on my bookshelf. One day, my dad brought them home and I was surprised because I wanted them for a very long time after my friend had recommended them. I like them because their covers are very colourful and beautiful. The stories are interesting and engaging.

I really treasure this collection because it has many different kinds of stories and each one is special. The author and illustrator, Harriet Muncaster, likes tiny details, and I love them too.
